Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Group I – Ported speaker enclosure, classified in class 381, subclass 349 (Figs. 1-10).
- II. Group II - , Sealed speaker enclosure classified in class 381, subclass 345 (Figs. 11-13).

Group I contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species. The species are:

- I. Species I: Fig 1, and Fig. 5 drawn to a speaker device comprising a cabinet, speaker unit, a port, a removable cartridge of absorbent material, and a removable cartridge of deterioration prevention material.

- a. Subspecies I(a): Figs. 6 and 7 drawn to a speaker device comprising a cabinet, speaker unit, a port, a removable cartridge of absorbent material, and a removable cartridge of deterioration prevention material, inside the port.

- b. Subspecies I(b): Fig. 8 drawn to a speaker device comprising a cabinet, speaker unit, a port, absorbent material inside the cabinet, and a removable cartridge of deterioration prevention material.

Art Unit: 2615

II. Species II: Fig. 2 drawn to a speaker device comprising a cabinet, speaker unit, a port, a removable cartridge of absorbent material, secured with a fixing tool and a hook.

III. Species III: Figs. 3, 10 drawn to a speaker device comprising a cabinet, speaker unit, a port, a removable cartridge of absorbent material, secured with a fixing tool and hinged opening.

IV. Species IV: Figs. 4, 9 drawn to a speaker device comprising a cabinet, speaker unit, a port, a removable cartridge of absorbent material having a hinged opening Second Invention: Drawn to a sealed speaker enclosure classified in Class 381 subclass 349.

Figs 11, 12, 13 drawn to a sealed enclosure, with an opening and closing part, having a speaker device and a removable cartridge.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the inventions are distinct because Invention I is an enclosure having a closed port, which is a different design, and has a different mode of operation than Invention II, which is a speaker with an open port.

The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed invention, species and subspecies, for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no generic claims. Applicant must indicate what claims correspond to the elected invention, species and subspecies.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
